Current Procedure	New Procedure
Fee Charges for Returning Securities on the Same Day If the client has borrowed securities but the short selling order is not matched or the order is cancelled, and the client returns the borrowed securities on the same day as the borrowing date. The Company will charge securities borrowing fees equivalent to 1 day.	Fee Charges for Returning Securities on the Same Day If securities have been borrowed for short selling and such securities are returned on the same day as the borrowing date, whether due to the short-selling order being unmatched, cancelled, or the buy order for the return of the securities being successfully executed, the system will automatically process the return of securities. The Company will charge securities borrowing fees equivalent to 1 day.
Display of Lending Securities Securities that have been lent are identified by an "(r)" suffix next to the security name in the Streaming Portfolio.	Display of Lending Securities The "(r)" suffix will no longer be displayed next to securities that have been lent in the Streaming Portfolio Starting from the effective date of the new system, clients can check their SBL transactions through the following 3 channels: 1. Bualuang Securities Website: Trade > SBL 2. Wealth Connex Application: Other > SBL 3. Streaming Application: BLS > SBL

For clients with outstanding SBL contracts as of October 4, 2026, any outstanding borrowed securities will be automatically returned. Where securities have already been repurchased but have not yet been delivered, the system will automatically process the return of the securities. SBL fees incurred from October 1-4, 2026 will be charged for one additional fee cycle, and a new SBL fee cycle will begin from October 5, 2026 onwards.

This enhancement will be effective from October 5, 2026 onwards.
